June 26, 1981-January 19, 1997

*Some people come into our lives and quickly go.
Some stay for awhile, leave footprints on our hearts,
and we are never ever the same.*

SEAN BRENNAN: Congratulations! We are proud of all that you have accomplished. Listen to your heart, follow your dreams, and success will be yours. Remember that we will always be there for you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Trish.

ADAM GOODSPEED: As one door in your life is about to close, many more are about to open--so many doors, so many choices. Maintain your independence and follow your own path. Keep your sense of values and your sense of humor and you will succeed. Love, Mom and Dad.

MARY PETERSON: We cannot believe you are graduating from high school. It seems like yesterday you looked just like this picture! We are all proud of you and love you so very much. Love, Dad, Mom, Jean, Erik & Matt.

JASON ATCHUE: For eighteen years you've been our son. You've always made us proud. The future is yours, my son. Good luck. Love, Mom and Dad.

CHRISTOPHER J. YOUNG: Congratulations! We couldn't be happier with the type of young man you have become. We are very proud of all that you have accomplished and wish you happiness and success in all that you do. Love, Mom, Dad, and Michele.

TONY LEMAY: "T" you've grown up so fast. Now you're a young man. Where did the years go? Keep your head held high and reach for the stars and then you will be successful. We are all proud of you as a cousin, grandson, nephew, friend, brother, and son. Good luck. Love, Dad, Mom, and "D."

SETH ADAMS: Boo, your humor, your gift, your talent, your vision, your music, your passion and you're so much more. We love, we admire--you're the musician in our lives. Love, Mom, Dad, Heather, and Erin.

NATHAN AGIN: We've celebrated good time, worked through tough times and enjoyed every day in between. Be proud of who you are and what you have achieved. Thanks to every person you met and the experiences you had. Good or bad, you have learned from them and have what it takes to succeed. Way to go! Love, Mom.

TIFFANY ALLAIN: Congratulations to a daughter who's so special in so many ways. Your compassionate nature, your sense of humor and your enthusiasm for life will take you wherever you want to go. We're very proud of you! Love always, Mom and Dad.

NICHOLAS ATHANAS: You are a son we have been proud of from the day you were born. You have grown to a fine young man with a sincere personality. The goals you have set for your future are wonderful, and we know you will follow them through and succeed. God bless you, you are a wonderful son. Love, Mom and Dad.

KARYN BAVOSI: We thought that we had it all until blessed with such a wonderful daughter and sister. Thank you for so many memories, but don't stop now. You're just getting started! Whatever the path chosen, we'll be right at your side! With love, Mom, Dad, Brian, and Fletch.

KEITH BAZINET: You have worked so hard all these years. It seems only yesterday that you were first playing on the soccer field. You have made us so proud of all of your accomplishments. We know that you will continue to be a caring individual in all that you do. We wish you happiness and success. Love, Mom, Dad, Kelly, and Fuzzy.

JENNIFER BERUBE: We can't believe how much you have grown since coming into this world at only 2 lbs. 11 1/2 ozs. You've come a long way and still have lots more to do and see as you continue your life's journey. We will be with you every step of the way. Love you always, Mom and Dad.

JUSTIN BIRTZ: Seventeen years have come and gone and it does not seem possible that you will soon be leaving us. It seems like yesterday that we were visiting the amusement parks, zoos, and museums. And we can't forget the countless soccer games and tournaments. During this time we have watched you grow from a fun-loving, curly haired child to a fine young gentleman who is compassionate and loving. As difficult as it is to let go, we realize that it is time. We are confident that you will strive to achieve the goals you set for yourself. Look to the future, Justin. There is a whole new world out there waiting for you. We will miss you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Matt.

BRITTA LIN O'CONNELL: Your childhood, as well as your adolescence, has had the usual ups and down, but the future holds the world for a beautiful young lady. Continue to reach for the stars, "Punkin," because all your goals are within your grasp. It's all there waiting just for you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Pat.

STEVE OPAROWSKI: Congratulations on making it through high school. Your curiosity, artistic talent, sense of humor, and kindness will help you succeed in the future. Good luck!

SARAH E. ONORATO: Sarah, so quick, sensible, and reserved, self-sufficient, caring, honest, and loyal, with character intact and integrity preserved, messy room abounds, yet no crazed teenage turmoil--so go forth, Sarah, and let your spark spread to others as you make your mark. Love, Mom, Dad, Chris, Dan, Ben, Cuppy, Baby, and Floppy.

BRIAN PAGE: Keep smiling, Brian!

PAIGE PEPPER: You have your whole future in front of you, to do what you will. Make wise, thoughtful decisions, grasp opportunity, continue to put in the extra effort, and please drive carefully. Make sure you enjoy what it is you choose to do in your life. Follow your conscience, it has served you well. Love, Mom, Lady, and Pete.

KATHRYN PERRY: Katie, these past 18 years have gone by too fast! It's so hard to believe that you will be in college in the fall. You have grown to be a kind and sensitive person. We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. We know you will be a great success in life. Good luck in college. We'll miss you. Love, Mom, Dad, Andrew, and Carolyn.

JEFF POLSELL: You entered our world, Jeff, at three and a half pounds, with the soul of an infant. Now look at you! A young man; 200 pounds of muscle and a soul that bristles with strength, determination, character, and insight. We're truly proud of you. Love, Mom & Dad (Eric & Kyle, too).

KIMBERLY ROONEY: These past four years have not always been easy but with a lot of hard work we knew you could do it. We are very proud of you and we love you very much. You deserve the best of everything in your future. Love, Mom, Dad, and Alex.

SHERRI ROY: Where have the years gone! You and that beautiful smile and great sense of humor have brought so much happiness in my life. You have always been more than just a wonderful daughter to me, you are also my best friend. I am very proud of you. God bless you and I love you very much. Mom.

CHRISTINA "TINA" SANCHEZ: Our brown-eyed little girl has grown up to be a charming and engaging young woman. You have added much to our lives, and we love you very much. You have a bright future ahead of you! Love, Mom, Lisa, David, and Danielle.

ADAM SMITH: Your bright charm, quick wit, and love have always been a joy in our lives. I know this will continue in all of your future endeavors as you climb the ladder of success. Remember, if you can dream, you can do it, and with your creative imagination, you will. We love you. Mom, Jamie, Jesse, and Becky.

DANIELLE SOMMERS: What a beautiful young lady you've become! The years have passed so quickly. Always maintain your sensitive and caring manner. You've chosen "the right path" in life. Continue to reach for the stars, keep your smile, and remember your guardian angel is always with you. We love you and are very proud of you. Mom, Dad, Jamie, and Jacklyn.

LAURA TASSINARI: We cried tears of joy the day you came into our lives. We survived the days of "Luke, Bean, and Toofis." Now our tomboy has matured into a wonderful young woman with a sense of self, a strong desire to pursue her dreams, and the courage to try anything. We wish you a successful future as you head for North Carolina. Never forget that we love you. Our door is always open to you and your friends. Love, Mom, Dad, Kevin, and Karen.

CAMERON THOMPSON: KamiKaze, one chapter ends and another exciting one begins. We've watched you grow into a great guy--our favorite cheerleader. Always be yourself--don't let others stifle you. Life is what you make of it--live it to the fullest. We wish you good luck, love, happiness in life and as you become one of the few, the proud. . . Semper Fi! Love, Mom, Dad, B, Linz, and Champ.

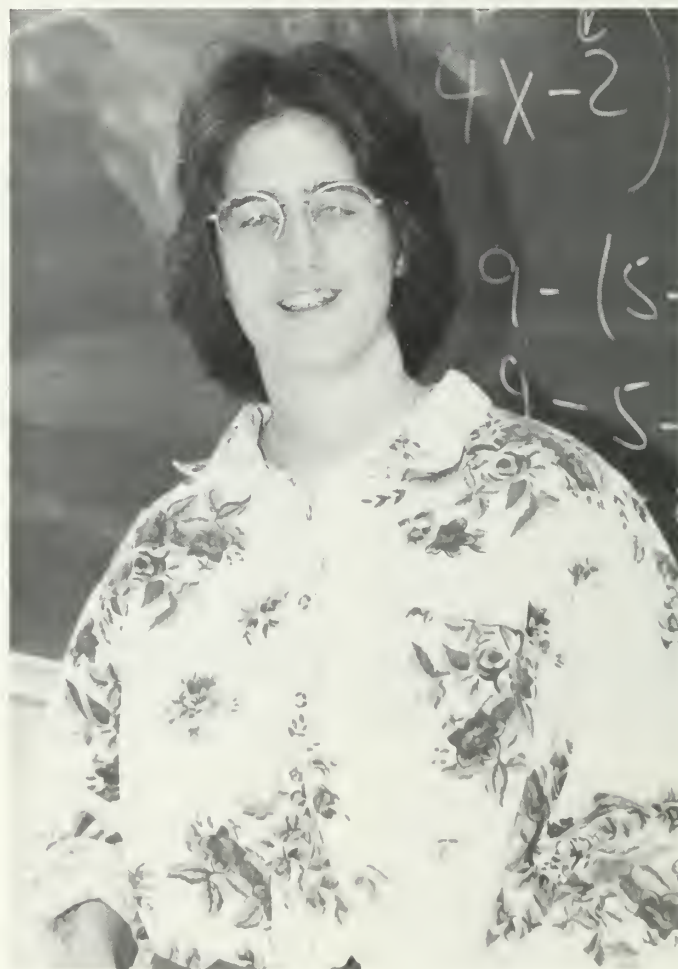

TIMOTHY WINSLOW: Tim, may your imagination, creativity, and easy going style be always with you. Continue to be adventurous, always soaring and reaching high to achieve your dreams. We are all very proud of you. Mom, Dad, and Troy.

Scholarship, Leadership, Character, Service

Right, President Kristin Mena and NHS member Heather White.

Below, Principal Tom Casey addresses his last NHS induction audience, as he retires this year.

Maura Goodhall speaks about service. "Service is an important quality for NHS members to have. It allows the student to take an active role in the community, whether this role be within the school community or outside of it. NHS members have improved the world around them."

Jamie Agin says this about scholarship. "Everyone wants to have fun in school. However, NHS members have the discipline to know when it's time to have fun and when it's time to work. Scholarship is everything that one does to obtain good grades; it is also helping others to do the same."

Junior Grace Farnsworth lights her candle of knowledge. Grace is a new inductee of the class of 2000. Others include Sarah Antalek, Alana LeClaire, and Jamie Reichle.

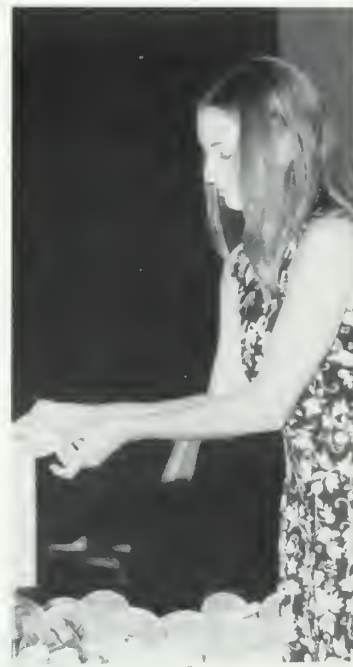

Mitch Leammukda remarks about character. "NHS members exemplify a cheerful personality, the ability to accept criticism, honesty, respect, and perseverance. I believe that character is what allows a person to be who he or she wants to be."

NHS members from the class of 1999 include: Nathan Agin, Kara DiStefano, Susan Felice, Lianne Goodwin, Kristin Mena, Brian Page, Paige Pepper, Kathryn Perry, Christina Sanchez, and Rhianna Myers.

Family and Community Leaders--FCL-- is an organization open to all students at GHS who want to be involved in their school and community. The goals of this group are to help young people become leaders, support school activities, interact with the community, and learn life skills such as planning, goal setting, problem solving, decision making, and interpersonal communications. This past year the club was involved in many rewarding activities: hosted the state FHA meeting, provided Thanksgiving dinner and Christmas gifts for local refugees, cosponsored an Easter egg hunt with other school organizations, and ran a bottle drive.

Mr. Casey Retires

When school reconvenes next September, Mr. Thomas Casey will no longer be the principal of GHS. He is retiring after the 1998-99 school year.

"To be able to finish a public school career at Grafton High School has been a truly meaningful treasure to me. It is always important to 'go out on top,' so they say. The students, faculty, and staff of GHS possess a caring spirit that I will remember always, and that has made my final two years the best," Mr. Casey commented recently.

Student and faculty have indicated that they will miss Mr. Casey both personally and professionally.

Assistant Principal Harold Richardson spoke very highly of his colleague. "I found him to be a warm, caring individual, and he always has the students' best interest at the forefront of his thinking."

"I found him very easy to get along with," Mr. Kosnoski remarked.

"He's done a great job and we wish him well," Mr. Pignataro added.

Sophomore class Vice President Lea Johnson said, "I think he was closer to the students than any other principal."

"He was a real gentleman to work for," Mr. Richardson said, "and I'm sorry that he's leaving."

Mr. Casey wants the students and staff of Grafton High to remember one of his favorite quotes: "May the road of happiness be paved downhill all the way to your door!"

Article by April Maguire

During his last official graduation exercise, Mr. Casey made the following remarks to the seniors.

The sun rises and sets and day follows day. Before you know it, time has skipped by and a career (or life) lies behind us. How do we measure that career, or life? How do we put a value on it? We are for the most part what we have done. Your life is before you; your legacy is yet to be written; your career is yet to be defined; your life is yet to be lived. You are at the threshold of a life full of challenges and choices. At no other time in your life will you be as free and unrestricted to seize the moment, to make the decisions and be all that you can be. I am elated when I stand in the strong presence of those who have achieved, who have erected a monument to life. Theirs is a life characterized by ambition, commitment, courage. On the contrary, I am frightened by the stagnant weakness of those who allow the virus of inaction to infect their lives. Their decisions have been guided by complacency and comfort. Be an achiever. I ask you to consider letting the following quote guide your life--"I'd rather teach one bird how to sing than show 100,000 stars how not to dance."

May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
May the rains fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of His hand
